

Medical Information Policy

MDI Radiology will protect the privacy of your medical information, disclosing information only to relevant professionals, in an effort to maintain doctor/patient confidentiality.

Your results are directly communicated to your referring doctor, usually within 24 hours of your examination. You are able to take home a copy of your scans after your examination, depending upon the type of scan you have had.

We may need to disclose information about you to organisations for medical, ethical, legal and/or procedural reasons. Please see Section 4 of our Personal Information Policy for more information.
